HONORARIUMS

VISITORS LAST SUNDAY

THANK YOU'S

Dear Grace Sunday School Class and entire Church Family,

I'm so very thankful for all the calls, visits, and beautiful cards from you all. I've filled an album with all the cards so I can enjoy them everyday.

God must still have something for me to do since my health is still pretty good. My main problems are walking and getting up and down. Again, I appreciate all your thoughts and prayers and hope for more visits after I get my Covid shots this month.

Love to all and hope to see you soon, Evelyn Yarbrough

Dear Church Family,

I would like to thank everyone for your prayers, cards and calls since I broke two bones in my foot. It is so good to have a great church family.

Love in Christ, Margaret Dyess

A WORD FROM YOUR PASTOR

In Luke 17:1, Jesus said to His disciples... "Temptations to sin are sure to come, but woe to the one through whom they come."

This is a clear warning to believers that we should do nothing to cause another person to sin. We as Christians should always do our best to act like Christ, but even moreso when we're out in public. There are always eyes that watching how we behave. And many times, especially in small-town MS, those eyes belong to a person who knows that we're a Christian.

So when we blow, lose our temper, act the fool, get drunk, or behave immorally we are indirectly telling them it is ok to act like we do. And that will oftentimes cause another to sin.

The Bible says that each of us are to walk in a manner worthy of our calling. Even moreso when we're around other people.

This Sunday we begin our year-long study for 2021. Looking forward to seeing you all!

Love you,

Bro, Chris

MUSIC NOTES

So I am writing this from home as I have been diagnosed with Covid. Other than feeling very achy and dealing with a sinus infection on top of that, I feel like I am doing okay. I have a great doctor who recommended medicine to me and a great church who has been praying for me and offering to help in so many ways. I am blessed.

This has caused some changes. The choir won't meet this Wednesday and next Sunday. Children's Choir won't meet this week and our musical, Danny and the Shacks will be moved back a couple of weeks. But throughout all of this, I am blessed. We just celebrated the life, sacrifice and resurrection of our Lord, how could Covid even compare to that? I think during these times we have the opportunity to bless or to curse and I hope that I will always bless as I have been blessed.

My heart and prayers go out to those in our congregation and especially our choir who also came down with Covid. I pray that your symptoms are light and your recovery quick. I also hope that we, as God's people, don't allow this or anything else to keep us from serving our Lord. I will never serve my Lord as much as He has served me. I will never love Him as much as He has loved me. But I hope each day I will grow to serve Him and love Him more!

I will miss you next Sunday but I honestly can't wait to be together again for worship and to be together with the choir as we, once again, sing and honor our Lord!

Singing His Praises,

Randy
