FROM THE PULPIT

This Sunday will be March 16. Many weeks ago, we put into motion what became our 3:16 on 3/16 emphasis. We set a goal of making 316 contacts between February 16 and March 16. I am so thankful for your work. Many of you stepped outside of your comfort zones and talked to people about church attendance or the Lord Jesus. Maybe you used some of the evangelism training that we had during Sunday nights in January in the Welcome Center. Maybe you used the 3/16 cards. Either way, thank you for your work. Actually, your work is not complete. Now is the time to pray. It is very likely that FBC will have many guests this Sunday. The sermon will be short and sweet. I plan to simply share the gospel in the most basic way that I can. Please pray for clarity as I preach and for the Holy Spirit to draw people to the salvific work of Jesus.

In Christ,
Dr. David

MUSIC NOTES

This week the choir is singing one of my favorite songs: "Bless the Lord (103)." I fell in love with this song the first time I heard it and I still feel that way every time we sing it.

Psalm 34:1, "I will bless the Lord at all times; his praise shall continually be in my mouth."

Psalm 103:1, "I will bless the Lord at all times; his praise shall continually be in my mouth."

Psalm 100:4, "Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise! Give thanks to him; bless his name!"

Psalm 96:2, "Sing to the Lord, bless his name; tell of his salvation from day to day."

There is no better way to start every day than to bless the Lord. I encourage you if you don't do this to try it. Before you start your prayer time or your scripture reading of the day, stop and bless God. Bless Him for who He is and for what He has done for you. It will help you put your mind, heart and day into the proper focus.

The Chancel Choir is working on it's Easter presentation. We will share on April 13 at 5 pm. I hope you will make plans to come be part of this night of beautiful worship music celebrating the sacrifice, death and resurrection of our Lord. And consider inviting a friend.

See you Sunday as we worship together!
Randy
