Want to help with VBS but can't be on your feet all morning or perhaps maybe you work that 9 to 5 Dolly tells us about?

Here's some ways to help:

1. Bring teacher snacks (sign-ups will come to you in your Sunday school class)
2. Serve in the kitchen with Laurie one morning
3. Donate money for us to purchase kids' snacks
4. Donate Fun Pops freeze pops or Pop Ice Freezer Pops for our preschoolers to chomp on
5. Donate appliance cardboard
6. Donate exceedingly large trees, flowers, bugs or birds
7. Give to our offering to help HOPE ministries and the Baptist Children's Village - for every $100 a youth will be slimed/iced and for every $500 a staff member

CHURCH

Breakfast at 7:30 AM
Workday from 8AM-Noon

We will need help for the following tasks on the Work Day at the Church:

- Pulling up hedges by the fountain outside of the Welcome Center
- Painting over faded stripes in the church parking lot
- Deep cleaning the Family Life Center Kitchen
- Repairing loose tiles on the patio outside of the sanctuary

And other random tasks around the church.

In addition to the work at the church our Brotherhood men will be helping to clean up a church member's yard.

MUSIC NOTES

April was a busy month for the music ministry with the Chancel Choir's Easter Presentation, Young Musician's presentation of "The Greatest Hymn on Earth" and our Children's Choir final "Ring and Sing." I want to thank everyone who helps making our Music Ministry happen week in and week out. Our Accompanists, the Chancel Team, the tech team, those who drive and help pick up children on Tuesday afternoon, to those who hand out cookies and watch over kids playing in the gym to those who help with our Preschool Choir, Music Makers and Young Musician Choirs. I want to say a special word of thanks to Cathi and Don Kennedy for the leadership in the Preschool Choir and to Angela Mitchell for her leadership in our Music Makers choirs. I so appreciate these who are leading in our choirs.

Looking forward to a summer hiatus and recharging our batteries for Children's Choir Fall 2025/Spring 2026 beginning in August. We can use more help on Tuesday afternoons as we have some who are having to step away. If you are able to help, please let me know.

See you Sunday,

Randy
